

Data Collection and Processing

When you register and log in to our website or app, we may collect and process personal information such as your email address and password. This information is necessary for creating and managing your account, as well as ensuring the security of our platform.

Security Measures

Your login credentials, including your password, are securely stored using industry-standard encryption techniques. We do not have access to your password in its original form, as it is hashed before being stored in our database. This encryption method ensures that your sensitive information remains protected (GDPR Art. 6 No.1 Letter c).

Data Sharing

We do not share your login credentials with third parties, unless required by law or with your explicit consent.

Data Retention

Your login session may be tracked for security purposes, including monitoring for unauthorized access attempts and ensuring the integrity of our platform.

Additional Information

During the registration process, we may also collect additional information such as your name or profile details to personalize your experience on our platform. This information will be handled in accordance with our general privacy policy.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy practices regarding user registration and login data, please contact us using the information provided below.

Pages with Contact Forms

When you fill out contact forms on our website, we may ask for information such as your name, organization, address, email, invoice references, and similar details (GDPR Art. 6 No.1 Letter c). This information is not shared with others and will be deleted when it is no longer needed for our purposes.
